MEMORANDUM

Privileged and Confidential Advice of Counsel

TO: All City Commissioners and Department Heads
FROM: Nelson A. Diaz, City Solicitor
DATE: October 10, 2003
SUBJECT: Immigrant Access to City Services

It has come to my attention through advocates of the immigrant community in the City of Philadelphia that many documented and undocumented aliens are hesitant to access City services for fear of legal repercussions.

For this reason I would like to clarify the legal responsibility of the City of Philadelphia officers and employees in regard to the provision of City services to the community.

It is the policy of the City of Philadelphia to promote the utilization of its services by all of its residents who are entitled to and in need of them. Individuals should know that they may seek and obtain the assistance of City agencies regardless of personal or private attributes, and without negative consequences to their personal lives.

The Equal Protection Clause of the United States Constitution provides that "no State shall...deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws." The Supreme Court of the United States recognizes that illegal aliens are "persons" protected by the Equal Protection Clause and Due Process Clauses of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. Plyer v. Doe, 457 U.S. 202, (1982). The Equal Protection Clause is made applicable to the States and by extension to the City of Philadelphia, pursuant to the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments.

Therefore, all City officers and employees should be reminded that no person shall be denied any City services or benefits by reason of his or her immigration status.
